

It seems like some people will never learn!

Last November voters voiced their disapproval of the machinations of the Bush administration by electing Democratic majorities in both houses of Congress. Voters mistakenly believed that the Democrats would end the war in Iraq, raise the federal minimum wage, rein in corporate power, protect the environment, start the serious work needed to overhaul our dilapidated health care system and a host of other progressive reforms.

As of today, the Democrats haven't done a darn thing! They passed a bill to lengthen – not shorten – the war (without any strings attached), the federal minimum wage hasn't increased by a single penny and they haven't made any inroads on a host of other important issues either.

If nothing else, 2007 is proof that Washingtonians and Americans NEED a new political voice, one that works for the needs of the people, not corporate special interests. By making a heartfelt contribution to the Green Party today, you can join us to become that voice. Simply fill out the coupon at the bottom of the page and use this self-mailer (or your own envelope) to send in your contribution.

Best of all, a good portion of your contribution will be used to aid the candidacies of 4 Green Party members: Sally Soriano – Seattle School Board; Joe Szwaja – Seattle City Council; Meta Hogan – Mayor of Olympia; and Suzanne Nott – Port of Olympia. Helping to get these people elected will benefit their communities as they put Green Party values and ideas into action!

Our party is growing rapidly as more and more people turn away from the failed policies of the Republicrats. Help us further this momentum by making a generous donation today.
